Intro

- You are an astronaut who has crash landed on a strange planet, which you have decided to call Xenon!
- During the crash, different parts of your ship went flying across the planet
- You must find all five parts in order to escape!
- You are injured from the crash, so your handy droid will explore the planet for you!

- Why is Xenon so dangerous?
 - At night, aliens will try to destroy what's left of your ship!
 - Every night, you will be teleported back to your ship
 - Build turrets to defend against the attack!
- Increase your chances of survival!
 - There is a shop at the downed astronaut that contains handy upgrades
 - Player speed, ship health, improve turrets
 - Collect moon stones around the map to buy shop items!

Player Controls

- Use WASD to roll around the planet and spacebar to jump
 - Ship parts and Moon stones will “zoom” towards the player when approached
- Use mouse to aim and left mouse to shoot grapple
 - Grapple will allow player to navigate tough-to-reach spots
- Press “T” to place a turret at your location at the cost of 1 moon stone
- Press “E” to open the shop (when near the astronaut)
- Press “Escape” to toggle the pause menu
